

TENNIS ANYONE?

Hi, my name is Wendy Evans and I live here in Tallgrass East. Last summer was the first summer I offered tennis lessons to the kids of Tallgrass East. We had a fantastic summer of both group and private lessons. In total 23 kids took lessons and we all had lots of fun meeting new friends in the neighborhood.

About me: I am a stay-at-home mom of 4 children. I started playing tennis in high school. After playing in high school, I went on to play tennis for two years at Ashland University. I have a Bachelors Degree in Physical Education K-12 from Bowling Green State University in Ohio.

Philosophically, I believe that kids should have fun while learning skills. I will teach them the basics of tennis in the form of games and drills. I am passionate about kids being active and learning sports that they can play for a lifetime.

Here is the scoop: I will offer 2 sessions. Each session will be 4 weeks in length. They will be Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

Session 1: June 16 and June 18
June 23 and June 25
June 30 and July 2
July 7 and July 9

Session 2: July 14 and July 16
July 21 and July 23
July 28 and July 30
